

A painting of a rural scene. On the left, a large hay wagon with a thick, golden-yellow haystack is being pulled by a dark horse. A person wearing a hat is visible on top of the haystack. To the right is a rustic wooden house with a gabled roof, a small dormer window, and two larger windows. The foreground is filled with green grass and purple flowers. The background shows a bright, cloudy sky with a small bird in flight. The overall style is impressionistic and colorful.
